Two pink flamingo lawn ornaments are positioned on a background split diagonally from the top-left to the bottom-right. The upper-left portion is a light pink, and the lower-right portion is a darker, more vibrant pink. The flamingo on the left is in the foreground, facing right, with its head slightly lowered. The flamingo on the right is further back, also facing right, with its head more upright. Both flamingos have a bright pink body with detailed feather patterns, a yellow patch on the upper part of their beak, and a black lower part. They are mounted on thin metal stakes.
