OUTPOST™ HEAT DEFLECTOR

EXTEND YOUR FIRE PIT SEASON

Designed to work with our Outpost Rod, the Breeo® Heat Deflector is purposefully designed to maximize hot airflow out from the fire pit to keep you warm. It is the only adjustable heat deflector available today, and is built to outperform and outlast other heat deflectors on the market. Experience our heatwave technology and stay warm by the fire the whole year 'round.

FEATURES

INCREASED WARMTH: Design elements such as the heat-focusing cone, downdraft bends, and secondary heat chamber efficiently direct heat away from the fire laterally, keeping you warmer in your seat.

ADJUSTABLE HEIGHT: Compatible with the Outpost Rod, the heat deflector features adjustable height, allowing you to move it up and down on the rod to control the amount of heat directed outward.

BUILT TO LAST: Constructed out of 304 stainless steel and made by Breeo in the USA, the Outpost Heat Deflector will last a lifetime in the elements.

OUTPOST ROD: The Outpost 19 and 24 Heat Deflectors require one Outpost Rod (the same rod that comes with our Outpost Grill). The 30 Heat Deflector has two handles and requires two Outpost Rods. Use heat-resistant gloves when hot.

INSTALL HEAT DEFLECTOR

1 SET UP ROD

Insert the peg and collar end of the rod into the opening on the rim of your fire pit. Align pegs on the rod with the notches on the fire pit, lower the rod, ensure the pegs go down into the opening, and twist the rod to secure.

2 SECURE ROD

Slide the locking collar down onto the rod, align the tabs, and slide it into the notches on the fire pit to lock the rod into place. The rod should not spin, and the small handle of the locking collar should be facing outward.

3 ADD THE HEAT DEFLECTOR

Loosen the locking thumb screw (do not remove) and hold the Outpost Heat Deflector horizontally to slide the sleeve onto the rod(s). Secure the heat deflector by tightening the locking thumb screw on the handle. Lower the heat deflector to the desired height and secure it by tightening the locking thumb screw on the handle.

We recommend two people if using the Outpost 30 Heat Deflector, one at each handle.

Adjust the heat deflector to the desired height to ensure you get the full benefits of the increased heat, depending on whether you're sitting or standing.

USE & CARE

Make sure the Heat Deflector is secured firmly into place on the Outpost Rod to prevent sliding down while in use. Always wear heat-resistant gloves and use two hands when adjusting the heat deflector over the fire. Heat Deflector can be used in conjunction with other Outpost accessories, if desired. The Heat Deflector can be used to protect the fire pit from light rain.

To clean the Outpost Heat Deflector, we recommend your favorite stainless steel cleaner with a soft cloth or a bristle brush, water, and dish soap. Stainless steel may darken in color when exposed to heat.

WARNING

Always practice safety first when using the Outpost™ Heat Deflector and accessories, and exercise the same precautions you would with any open fire.

Never leave your Breeo® Fire Pit & accessories unattended, especially around children and pets. The Outpost Heat Deflector and accessories become very hot in use and can cause severe burns.

Do not touch when hot. Avoid touching sensitive surfaces with the Outpost Heat Deflector when they are hot. When adjusting the height or orientation of your Outpost Heat Deflector, always wear protective gloves or use other heat protection to avoid burns.

The Outpost 30 Heat Deflector puts out a lot of heat laterally; make sure there are not any combustible or meltable surfaces close by.
