Check out what people are doing with bandannas!

Today, we are the largest bandanna company in the U.S., offering a mix of domestic and import items. With the loss of the U.S.- based textile market to overseas locations, Carolina Creative remains one of the few textile companies with production facilities in the U.S. This provides us with a great advantage over those companies that only import. We can print, cut, sew and deliver your order faster than just about any other supplier. And now with Carolina being part of Springs Creative, this allows us to bring to market digital printing capabilities.

We have the latest textile technology. Digitally printing textile fabrics eliminates as much waste of fabric, ink, water and electricity as possible and dramatically improves speed to market. The possibilities are endless when it comes to digital printing!

Tariff TALK:

In case you don't watch television, turn on a computer or maybe you have been visiting the planet Mars for the last few months, you may not know about the United States imposing new tariffs on Chinese imports.

GOOD NEWS! Most of our products are MADE IN USA!

Most of the pricing in this catalog will NOT be impacted because we manufacture in Greenville, SC. However, we do stock imported bandannas and Hav-a-dannas from China, that many of our customers order. If the new tariffs do move forward, then the pricing on these import items will change. We have all import items labeled with Import.

We appreciate your understanding as we have no control over these potential tariffs.

A Brief History of the Famous Carolina Paisley!

The bandana has served an important function for generations, worn by the likes of sailors, seafarers, farmers, cowboys, bikers and miners, and its use even extends to the LGBT community, gang members and general rebel culture. And the two-tone paisley-printed cotton cambric cloth has come a long way from the traditional resist dye techniques of Turkey and India, at times representing political campaigns and patriotism, at others, aiding in the promotion of popular culture and other twentieth century advertising.
