Forney Industries Promise

We deliver tailored solutions to address your specific problem or opportunity. We will staff and equip ourselves to deliver to you the personal service you desire and deserve. We are committed to your success regardless of location, size or needs. We understand it is your goal to get the job done right, and we are ready to help you do just that.

President's Message

Dear Valued Customer,

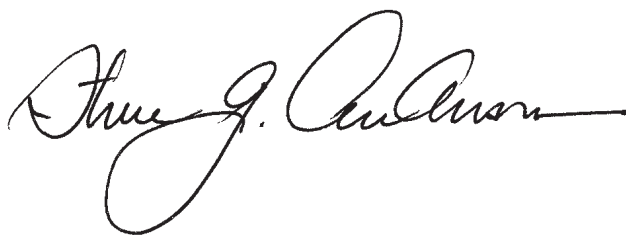

For more than 80 years, Forney Industries has been committed to offering products that make your life easier. Whether you are a seasoned welder, rancher or someone who simply enjoys working in the garage, we offer more than 5,000 products based on what you need, not on what we want to sell.

Our passion is bringing new and enhanced products to you. This combined with our unparalleled service sets us apart. In fact, All Business is Local is our mantra and that commitment hasn't changed over the years. We treat our customers with the same undivided, personal attention that we offered decades ago but offer the convenience of 24-hour electronic fulfillment services, too.

Your satisfaction begins with our employees. We pride ourselves on securing a remarkable staff that understands the products we sell and knows how important those products are to you. It's simple. Our employees are passionate about what you do.

As a family-owned company, please trust that we will continue to focus on you and your success. While you are busy working at your craft, we are researching and developing the next, best product that will make you increasingly more successful. After all, we aren't successful until you are.

Thank you for your continued business,

STEVEN G. ANDERSON, President & CEO Forney Industries

The Forney Master Series™ auto-darkening welding helmets are designed for all welding, grinding and cutting applications. See it on p.56.

GENERAL SAFETY

SAND & PREP CENTER

1. Sand the surface of the concrete to a uniform finish. Use a 1/2" diamond grit sandpaper. Sand in a circular motion, starting from the center and moving outwards. Sand until the surface is smooth and free of all imperfections.	2. Clean the surface of the concrete. Use a vacuum or broom to remove all dust and debris. The surface must be clean and free of any contaminants before the primer is applied.
3. Apply the primer. Use a roller or brush to apply a thin, even coat of primer to the surface. Allow the primer to dry for 24 hours before the next step.	4. Mix the concrete. In a clean bucket, mix the concrete powder with water according to the manufacturer's instructions. Stir until the mixture is smooth and free of lumps.
5. Apply the concrete. Use a trowel or screed to apply the concrete mixture to the surface. Spread the mixture evenly, starting from the center and moving outwards. Use a trowel to smooth the surface and remove any excess concrete.	6. Finish the surface. Use a trowel to create a smooth, uniform finish. If a textured finish is desired, use a broom or trowel to create the desired texture. Allow the concrete to cure for 28 days before the final finish is applied.

SAFETY GLASSES KEY

LENS COLOR	VLT*	LIGHT CONDITIONS	BENEFITS
Clear 	90%	Indoors or night.	No influence on contrast or color.
Amber / Yellow 	89%	Flat to very low light. Filters out haze for brighter view.	High contrast, better definition.
Mocha 	23%	Medium to bright light. Outdoor applications.	Minimizes glare, reduces eye strain and fatigue.
Gray 	14%
Mirrored Bronze 	50%	Flat to low light. Outdoor applications.	Boosts contrast, enhances depth perception.
Mirrored Silver & Blue 	23%	Medium to extremely bright light.	Reflects bright light, reduces eye strain and fatigue.

VISIBLE LIGHT TRANSMITTANCE (VLT): The percentage of light allowed to pass through a lens. For example, a lens with a VLT of 23 admits 23% of visible (non-UV) light, filtering out the remaining 77%. The lower the VLT, the darker the lens.

*Mirrored lenses reflect light, reducing the amount of light that passes through the lens

THE FORNEYHIDE™ CHOICE

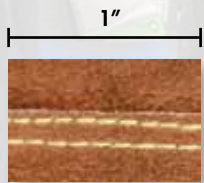

Forney Industries dedicated over 24 months of research and development focusing on creating comprehensive Forney specifications. After an 18 month market test across all U.S. geographic regions, multiple channels and store locations, Forney Industries released the ForneyHide glove line.

FIT, FORM, FUNCTION

- Fit – Research and development driven specs to ensure sizing hits the sweet spot.
- Form – Each glove style specifically constructed for the job at hand.
- Function – Glove construction tailored to the specific protection needs of each trade

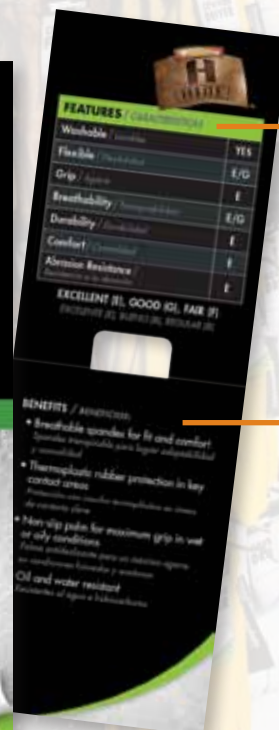

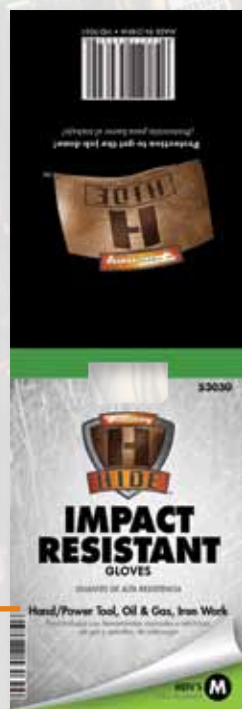

QUALITY AND CONSISTENCY

- Glove design and construction made to our specifications.
- Premium and Signature gloves use a minimum of eight stitches per inch versus the industry standard of six stitches per inch. Ensures superior durability and longevity.
- 20 points of inspection per glove and a systematic quality control assurance process.

SUPPORT

- Designated team dedicated to sourcing and quality control.
- Depth and breadth of our source supply to prevent out of stock conditions in key selling seasons.
- Added value packaging which communicates quality, benefits and user needs.

TYPES OF LEATHER

COWHIDE
Durable in rugged applications

PIGSKIN
Pliable in wet conditions

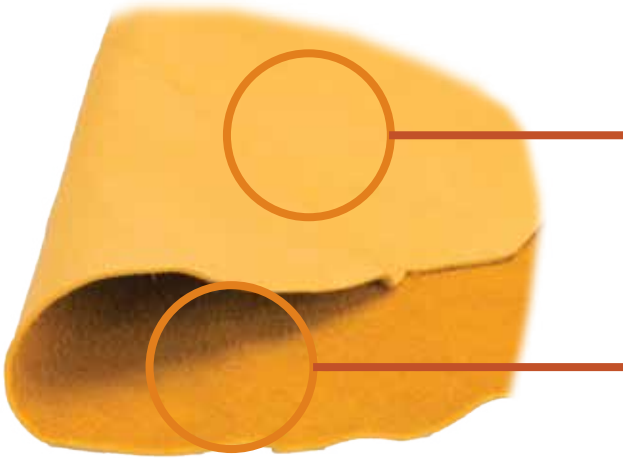

DEERSKIN
Extreme softness, comfort and warmth

GOATSKIN
Highest dexterity and softness

CUTS OF LEATHER

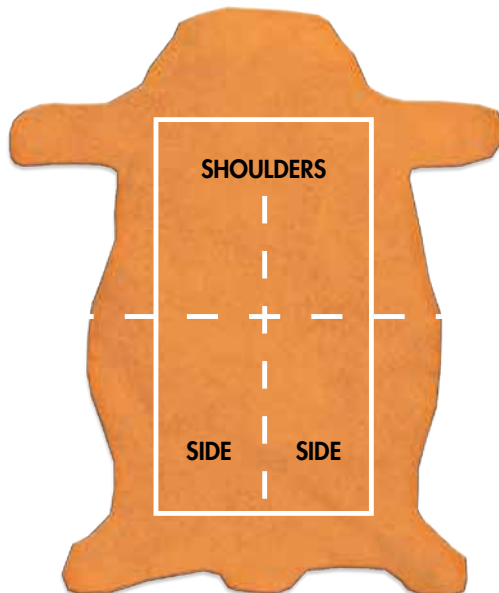

FULL GRAIN – The external side of the hide

- Smooth
- Most durable
- Good dexterity

SPLIT GRAIN – The underside of the hide

- "Fuzzy"
- Not as strong as full grain leather
- Area from which the glove is cut determines durability and dexterity

SHOULDER SPLIT – Economical quality

- Less durable
- Less fiber density resulting in fair/good abrasion resistance
- Visible difference in texture or "more fuzzy"

SIDE SPLIT – Best quality

- Highest durability
- High fiber density resulting in very good abrasion resistance
- Clean and uniform texture "smoothest of all split leathers"

A close-up photograph of a welder in a workshop. The welder is wearing a dark grey long-sleeved shirt, green protective sleeves, and large black safety goggles. He is also wearing white and brown leather welding gloves. He is holding a welding torch and a metal rod, focused on welding a metal piece. Bright sparks are flying from the point of contact. A pair of glasses is tucked into his shirt pocket. The background is a blurred industrial setting.
